LET'S MENTOR WITH ATTITUDE

About the project

The PAL ENROLL Project aims to enhance the role of the intermediary in the intercultural relations & education, providing them with a mentor approach.

The approach is tailored to support them in order to guide disadvantaged youngsters.

Intercultural mentoring is an essential tool for communication that facilitates social inclusion groups in order to help their personal and professional development.

Objectives

- Capitalize the existing European experience in the process of providing counseling services to marginalized people.
- Adapt the existing knowledge into an innovative training curriculum.
- Introduce a mentoring methodology for supporting Romani youth and children in the educational process and career guidance.
- Upgrade the existing skills of social workers, counselors and trainers in the field of Romani support services.
