WHAT'S NEW

Be the first to know what's to follow on our creative journey with the Cultural Footprint project. Our 3rd Newsletter lists our milestones so far and embarks you on our next opportunities offered to young and emerging artists!

RE-INVIGORATION, CAPITALIZATION, REALIZATION: THIS THE TIME TO NETWORK AND INSPIRE

Breaking News: Our online webinars have been successfully implemented! During the period of October to November 2023, the Cultural Footprint project partners cooperated with more than 200 artists and cultural workers across EU during the project's webinars entitled: “Business and Art Come Together: We cooperate instead of competing!”.

Cultural Footprint E-learning Platform is OFFICIALLY OPEN FOR ALL!

If you're a young emerging artist, you are officially enabled to access the project's E-learning Platform as well, with interactive presentations, exercises, and the webinars' recorded versions, ensuring your entrepreneurial mindset's development, by certifying your accomplishment digitally!

UNVEILING THE CREATIVE CURRICULUM IN ALL PARTNERS' NATIONAL LANGUAGES

We are thrilled to announce the official release of our creative curriculum! This comprehensive resource is the gateway to the entrepreneurial mindset. The so-called 'Youth Training Handbook' is currently available in English, as well as in our partners' 5 national languages, i.e., Swedish, Czech, Italian, Dutch and Greek! Packed with theoretical information and practical exercises and tools, this educational corpus ignites creativity thinking and pairs it with entrepreneurial mindset's development, for young cultural workers to realize their first entrepreneurial projects related to art!

LET'S MENTOR AND NETWORK

Get ready for the last steps of the Cultural Footprint project's methodology: now it's time for young artists to be mentored and networked!

The project's E-Residencies that will be implemented soon will embark young artists in the adventurous journey of studying their topics of interest related to arts and entrepreneurship! At the same time, young artists will have the opportunity to host their artworks on the project's Repository!
