

NEWSLETTER

ARTIST DISCUSSIONS: VOICES HEARD, INSIGHTS SHARED

Our interactive Facebook Live sessions with emerging artists have concluded, providing a platform for discussions on the hurdles faced during the pandemic. Stay tuned for the release of these insightful sessions on our YouTube channel. Can't wait? Visit our website to discover more about their experiences.

COACHING SESSIONS: NURTURING ENTREPRENEURIAL MINDS

Empowered by newfound knowledge and guidance, participants have taken significant strides in their artistic journeys.

From crafting business plans to securing residencies, their achievements underscore the impact of the Cultural Footprint Project.

A core component of our project, the Coaching Sessions, involved 25 participants from diverse countries. Over 40 hours, participants crafted activity plans, embraced an entrepreneurial mindset, and collaborated on shaping their future plans. The result? Success stories ranging from personalized business plans to successful funding applications.

NEWSLETTER

The Cultural Footprint Project is not just a venture; it's a celebration of the artistic spirit. We invite you to join us in honoring the triumphs of these artists and witness the transformative power of our project.

CULTURAL FOOTPRINT REPOSITORY

THE CULTURAL FOOTPRINT REPOSITORY IS READY!

The Repository hosts more than 20 artists and more than 50 art pieces! The tool is available in the project's website and is open to host more art pieces! You can find the repository here:

